

Culture of the United Arab Emirates

Hamed and Abrar

We Will be talking about

Dances

Games

And Much More

Let's get into Traditional Dances

Al Ayala is a traditional art preformed in the UAE. It has been the UAE's primary form of national and cultural expression seen by rulers and the public.

Al Ayala's cultural tradition symbolizes the UAE's past as well as its identity, it has become a popular mean of celebration in weddings and other social gatherings

The two types of Ayala's are

- Ayalat Albar (Which means Desert)
- Ayalat Albahr (Which means the Sea)

Traditional Dances Must have Traditional Instruments

As mentioned in the previous slide Al Ayala has two types styles but one thing, they share is the instruments

Al Ras is a type of drums which used in Al Ayala. It's used because of its deep sound and its Vibrant rhythm

Al Oud is another type of instrument similar to a guitar which would usually play really deep sounds. It has pear shaped body and comes with 10-13
Strings

Want to learn about Majlis?

The Emirati Majlis (Which literally means council or assembly) is part of social life and a manifestation of solidarity and interaction, hospitality and habits, and generosity among the people of the UAE

1 Main type of Majlis is called (Barza).

Each Sheikh(Rulers) of the UAE has a Majlis of his own that is open to the public and its where every person gets a turn into addressing any issues that they are facing.

The Design of Majlis over the years

How about Traditional Games?

When we personally think about Games the first game that comes to our mind is Al Teila let us simplify it to you

تيلة

Al Teila is an old name of Marbles that is shown in the previous image. The steps are simple to playing this game. There would be multiple Marbles in a single place and the one playing must use another marble to hit the other ones